Purpose of Data Collection: The personal data you provide in response to this consultation will be used solely to gather feedback on the proposed footway widening scheme along the A40 Bwlch. Your responses will help inform the planning and development of the project, ensuring it meets the needs of the local community. We will also use your contact details to send updates about the consultation and the progress of the scheme, if you have indicated an interest in receiving them.

What Data We Collect: We may collect the following personal data through the questionnaire or consultation forms:

- Contact Information (e.g., name, email address, postal address) — only if you voluntarily provide it.
- Survey Responses — information you provide in response to questions about the proposed scheme.
- Demographic Information (optional) — such as how often you use the A40 Bwlch road or whether you live in the area.

Legal Basis for Processing: We process your personal data based on your consent (Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR) when you voluntarily provide your information as part of the consultation. If you provide your contact details, we will also use them to send relevant updates related to the consultation and project development.

How Your Data Will Be Used: Your responses will be used to:

- Analyse public opinion on the proposed footway widening scheme.
- Help shape decisions regarding the design and implementation of the scheme.
- Communicate with you about the project, including updates and outcomes of the consultation.

Who Will Have Access to Your Data: Your personal data will be handled by staff working on the consultation and project development. We will not share your personal data with any third parties unless required by law or as necessary to facilitate the consultation process. All data will be processed in accordance with the principles of confidentiality and data protection.

Data Retention: We will retain your personal data for as long as is necessary to fulfill the purpose of the consultation and any subsequent updates related to the project. After the consultation is complete, your data will be securely stored or deleted in accordance with our data retention policy.

Your Rights: Under the GDPR, you have the following rights regarding your personal data:

- Right to Access: You have the right to request access to the personal data we hold about you.

- Right to Rectification: You can ask us to correct any inaccurate or incomplete data.
- Right to Erasure: You can request the deletion of your personal data, subject to certain conditions.
- Right to Restrict Processing: You can ask us to limit how we use your data in certain circumstances.
- Right to Object: You have the right to object to the processing of your personal data for certain purposes.
- Right to Data Portability: You can request a copy of your data in a structured, commonly used format.

To exercise any of these rights or for any questions regarding your data, please contact us at [Your Contact Information].

Security of Your Data: We take the security of your personal data seriously and implement appropriate measures to protect it from unauthorized access, loss, or disclosure.

Changes to This Notice: If we make any changes to this privacy notice, we will update it here and notify you as appropriate.

Contact Information: If you have any questions or concerns about how your personal data is being handled, or if you wish to exercise any of your rights, please contact us at:
